The Southwestern Oklahoma State University Pharmacy Alumni Foundation Board of Directors recently held its fall meeting on the SWOSU campus in Weatherford to discuss upcoming projects and plan for the future.

The Pharmacy Foundation was incorporated in 1974 for the overall purpose of supporting the educational endeavors of the SWOSU College of Pharmacy. During its nearly 30-year history, the Pharmacy Foundation has raised private funds from alumni, friends and corporations to provide support for the student, faculty, programs and facilities of the SWOSU College of Pharmacy.

Members of the board include Greg Adams, Clinton; Shannon Brewer, Midwest City; Ron Cheyne, Granbury, Texas; Mark Dodson, Altus; Dorothy Gourley, Ardmore; Lowell Irby, Artesia, New Mexico; Bryan Potter, Elk City; H.F. Timmons, Weatherford; John Walker, Amarillo, Texas; and Phil Woodward, Yukon.

"We sincerely thank the donors for their generosity throughout the years and their continued confidence in our College of Pharmacy," said Pharmacy Alumni and Development Director Patti Harper. "We invite you to learn more about what we are doing and how you can help make our great pharmacy school even greater."
